What's Happening in Richfield in January

FREE FAMILY ACTIVITIES COMING UP IN RICHFIELD

Bundle up, bring the kids, and join the fun at TWO free, outdoor winter events in Richfield this month!

Try something new at Family Curling Day on Saturday, January 10 from 2 to 4 p.m. at Donaldson Park in Richfield. Outdoor curling equipment will be provided, along with hot chocolate in the warm Donaldson Park building. It's a great chance to try out this unique sport! Pre-registration is recommended for this event, but walk-ups are welcome.

Then lace up your skates for Family Skate Night, also held at Donaldson Park on Friday, January 16 from 6 to 7:30 p.m. Bring your own skates (or borrow a pair from a neighbor!), and enjoy snacks and hot chocolate in the park building.

Both events are perfect for all ages and a great way to enjoy the season together. Come out and play!

FEELING THE EFFECTS OF HOLIDAY EXCESS?

Set a running goal: Make this the year you join Richfield's Urban Wildland Half-Marathon!

Held on the last Saturday in July for over 20 years, this event supports a great cause: funding for Wood Lake Nature Center's school programs. It's a circular, flat course that travels through many of Richfield's parks.

And if you're not ready for a half-marathon, try out the 5K option!

FRENCHMAN'S BURGER OF THE MONTH

New Year, New Month, New Burger!

Just in time for the annual pond hockey tournament on Lake Nokomis, Frenchman's is debuting its January Canadian-Aloha Burger, with provolone, Canadian bacon, and a homemade pineapple relish. Is your mouth watering yet?
