What's Happening in Richfield in March

URBAN WILDLAND RUN RETURNS TO RICHFIELD

It's March...have you signed up for the Urban Wildland Half-Marathon yet? This popular race returns to Richfield for its 23rd year on Saturday, July 25.

What makes the Urban Wildland so great?

- A great course: Flat, shady, and park-oriented, including a run right through beautiful Wood Lake Nature Center.
- A good cause: All proceeds go to support school programming at Wood Lake.
- The best race volunteers anywhere: Happy, positive, excited to help; they'll keep your motivation up!
- A 5K option: If 13 miles isn't your thing, try the 5K route.
- New this year: Three-member teams! If you've got a couple running buddies, you've got a team.

Richfield loves welcoming runners to our beautiful town, and you'll find great support along the route, from race volunteers to first responders to the resident fans lining the streets. Come run Richfield!

SWEET TREATS AT WOOD LAKE

One of the most popular times of the year at Wood Lake Nature Center will be back again in March: maple syrup season!

On Saturday, March 8, you can hike into Wood Lake and learn how maple syrup is made, tackling every step from learning how to identify a maple tree to using the tools of the trade.

The best part? The taste testing! You'll get to taste syrup made right onsite.

FIND CALM WITH UNIQUE ANIMAL & NATURE EXPERIENCES

Nature is so good at reducing stress, restoring joy, and bringing people together. Discover these benefits for yourself at two different animal-themed events on March 21!

In the morning, take on a winter adventure exploring tracks left behind by local wildlife at Wood Lake. Get outside in nature and learn how to identify animal prints and signs in the snow! You can sign up for this activity here.

Then in the afternoon, head over to House of Prayer Lutheran Church in Richfield for Animals Helping Humans! This event is a unique opportunity for people to connect with the animal world to help relieve stress and do some good at the same time.
