What's Happening in Richfield in May

SPRING HAS SPRUNG IN RICHFIELD

The surest sign of spring: The Richfield Farmers Market is open for business! Every Saturday from 7 a.m. to noon from now through October, Veterans Park on Portland Avenue in Richfield transforms into a bustling local hub of independent growers, artisan bakers, and one-of-a-kind crafters.

Grab farm-fresh produce and handmade treats directly from the source; enjoy live music from local Twin Cities artists while you shop; and stretch out with a free outdoor yoga class every week at 8:45.

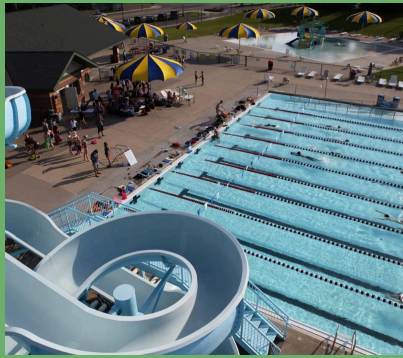

And the fun doesn't stop when your shopping bag is full. After you've scored your veggies, stick around for mini-golf or a surrey rental; Wheel Fun Rentals is also open for the season!

EARLY-BIRD POOL PASSES ARE HERE

Summer is just around the corner, and the Richfield Outdoor Pool is ready to be your ultimate backyard oasis! The pool is getting a major upgrade this year, featuring a brand-new wading pool play structure alongside an expanded climbing wall and zipline.

There's something for everyone at the pool: adults can enjoy dedicated lap swim times three times a week, kiddos can splash during the daily Tot Time, and those looking for a quieter experience can stop by for Sensory Sundays.

Grab your season pass now; early-bird rates are available through June 11!

COSMIC MINI-GOLF RETURNS

Are you ready to see Veterans Park in a whole new light?! On May 8 and 9, we're turning down the sun and cranking up the neon for two nights of Cosmic Mini-Golf. Tee off under the neon glow of blacklights for a magical night of mini-golf, then stick around for inflatables, music, and treats for the whole family.

It helps to register in advance, but walk-up registration will also be allowed as space permits!

BON APPETIT! CELEBRATE QUICHE LORRAINE DAY AT PATRICK'S

Mark your calendar for May 20! It's National Quiche Lorraine Day, and there is no better place to celebrate than at Richfield's own slice of Paris: Patrick's Bakery & Cafe on West 66th Street in Richfield.

If you haven't experienced Patrick's authentic take on this French classic, you're in for a treat! Enjoy an individual pie for lunch with a fresh side salad, or grab a large quiche to go for an effortless dinner.

And since you're already there, it would be crazy not to pair your meal with one of Patrick's world-class pastries. Enjoy!

TWO WHEELS, INFINITE POSSIBILITIES

As the weather warms, there's no better time to rediscover why Richfield is a cyclist's paradise. Richfield has it all--great paths that connect to larger metro-wide trails; several low-key Richfield-only circuits for a shorter, family-friendly ride; and even Taft Bike Park, a beginner-to-intermediate off-road experience featuring berms, rock features, rollers, jumps, pump track (including a smaller one for the tots), sloped wood decking, and more.

Ready to hit the pavement (or dirt)? Click below to find metro-area biking inspiration, explore the Taft Bike Park's webpage, or view a full map of Richfield's bike trails here.
