What's Happening in Richfield in October

PATINA OPENS IN RICHFIELD

Big news, Richfield: Patina is opening its largest store in the Twin Cities right here! The new store, at 2906 West 66th Street, is already open for business; now it's time to get ready for their grand opening celebration on Saturday, Oct. 17!

Get there for the opening and ribbon-cutting at 9:30 a.m., then stay for all the fun! Activities range from kid-friendly activities in the morning to arts and crafts in the afternoon, followed by a wine-tasting and food samples from 4:30-6.

Come see why Patina's ninth and largest Twin Cities location is perfect for Richfield: a wider array of women's apparel, expanded craft collections, and even Patina's first-ever changing rooms, so you can check out that new 'fit before you buy.

Mark your calendars, round up your shopping buddies, and come help us welcome Patina to the neighborhood!

A TOAST TO RICHFIELD RETURNS

Foodies and beverage enthusiasts, it's time for our favorite night of the year! On Thursday, Oct. 8, A Toast to Richfield is back. Your ticket gets you access to over 100 wines, craft beers, fine spirits, and mocktails to sample, plus delicious bites from a wide range of Richfield's favorite local restaurants.

Feeling lucky? The event's famous Wall of Wine raffle is back, and this year you can also try for the Year of Beer!

If you find something you really love, purchase a couple bottles at wholesale prices, thanks to the Richfield Foundation's partnership with Richfield liquor stores.

GET TICKETS FOR A TOAST TO RICHFIELD

Best of all, every ticket supports the Richfield Foundation, benefiting great local initiatives that keep Richfield thriving. Past grant recipients of the Richfield Foundation include Meals on Wheels, VEAP Food Shelf, and the Down Syndrome Association of Minnesota, among many others.

Gather your friends and join us for an unforgettable evening!

FREE SPOOKY-SEASON FUN FOR ALL AGES!

Can't wait for the 31st to get started on your Halloween fun? On Saturday, Oct. 10, two of Richfield's favorite fall events return!

Start your morning at the Great Pumpkin Giveaway at Fairwood Park. From 10 until noon, each family can take home a free pumpkin, plus enjoy face painting, photo booth, coloring contest, fall refreshments, and door prizes. Free for all!

Take a break for lunch at any of Richfield's great restaurants, then get the kiddos in their costumes for the annual Trunk or Treat event at Morris Nilsen Funeral Chapel. Morris Nilsen will host dozens of Richfield businesses and organizations handing out candy in their parking lot at 66th and Portland from 3 to 6 p.m. .

Pro tip: It's also an opportunity to Give Back. Bring canned goods and other household items and help "fill the hearse" for the VEAP Food Shelf!

STEP BACK IN TIME for "A PROPER FAREWELL"

Looking for a fall activity that's equal parts eerie, fascinating, and full of local lore? Join the Richfield Historical Society on Saturday, Oct. 24 for "A Proper Farewell," a FREE special event exploring the elaborate, mysterious world of old-timey funeral traditions.

This event includes:

- Bartholomew House Tour: Start at RHS to explore a new exhibit featuring Victorian mourning jewelry, post-mortem photography, and death cookies.
- Oak Hill Cemetery Walk: Then hop aboard a charter bus to nearby Oak Hill Cemetery--the resting place of many early

With bus transportation donated by the Richfield Bus Company and the Holter Family, the Historical Society is able to offer this event completely Richfield pioneers--for a guided walk led by cemetery board member Butch Goodspeed. You'll even visit the grave of Fanny Bartholomew, who once lived (and died!) in the very house you just left.

free of charge...but donations to the Historical Society are warmly welcomed!

Event is free but space is limited; RSVP at the Facebook event listing.

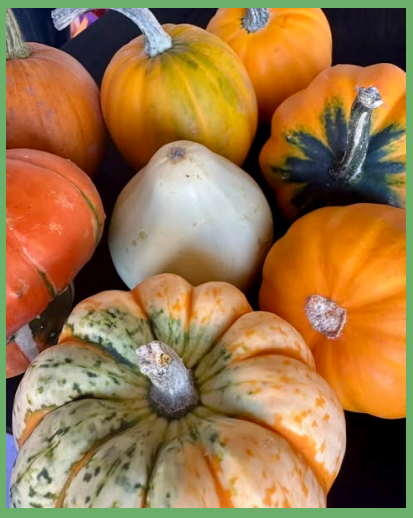

ONE LAST MONTH AT THE RICHFIELD FARMERS MARKET

October is here, and with it the final (and most delicious?) stretch of the Richfield Farmers Market season! You have until Saturday, Oct. 31 to get your weekend market fix under the pavilion at Veterans Park before they wrap things up for the winter. And if you haven't dropped by lately, fall is hands-down the best time to visit!

Use your Saturday mornings this month to pick up crisp Minnesota apples, pumpkins, winter squash, root vegetables, fresh cider, and autumn floral arrangements. It's also a great time to stock up on baked goods, local honey, jams, and even unique gifts to get a head start on your holiday shopping.

Even though the air is crisp, the market energy stays warm: Enjoy live music from local musicians and free yoga every Saturday! Market runs 8 a.m. to 12 p.m. through Oct. 31, with free yoga at 8:45 every week. See you there!
